

THE RISE OF THE VIET CONG (EXTINCTIONS EDGE Book 4)

EXTINCTIONS EDGESix novels of VietnamBY ROBERT LEADERTHROUGH THE HORRORS OF THE VIETNAM WAR THE TIME TRAVELERS STRUGGLE TO UNDERSTAND THE MINDLESS AGGRESSION OF THE HUMAN RACE. THEY MUST DECIDE WHETHER THE EARTH SPECIES SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO LIVE OR TO DIE.The Marregh/Riken are an aquatic race of amoebic time travellers. Their mother ship is hidden behind the furthest ice planet of the solar system, while an observation vessel orbits unseen high above the only partially inviting world of deep blue oceans. The oceans are too saline to colonize, but even worse they are divided by dry continents where insane land creatures wage an incomprehensible war.

The first horrified instinct of the Marregh/Riken is to move on, to explore elsewhere in the galaxies, but then they discover an appalling fact. This insane human species stands on the edge of space exploration, already they have begun to explore their own solar system, and eventually they could pose a direct threat to the peaceful races of other star systems. So the Marregh/Riken begin a systematic study, to try and understand the motives and psychology of these alien creatures, by attaching themselves mentally to some of the key players in the long nightmare which the Earth beings have called the Vietnam War. The Marregh/Riken must decide whether the human race is fit to survive, or whether they should be destroyed before they can become too powerful and export their blind hatreds out into the galaxies. The first hosts chosen are the French Paratroop Lieutenant Rene Chauvel, and the orphan child who will eventually be called Phat Sang. Through their eyes the Marregh/Riken follow the events of the lost colonial war.EXTINCTIONS EDGEBOOK

FOURTHE RISE OF THE VIET CONG

With two Timeships hidden in fixed orbit behind Pluto in the farthest reaches of the solar system, the extinction of the human race is imminent. It is only the watchers in the Earth observation capsule who are now pleading for more time and a longer study before the final decision is made. Reluctantly three more mind melts are sanctioned. The first new contact is with Nguyen Nam Kim who is taken as a boy from his home village and indoctrinated in the guerrilla camps in the jungles. Nam Kim grows from a hit and run fighter engaging in ambush and night attacks, to a seasoned veteran of the Viet Cong. Finally he is in one of the groups which merge with the North Vietnamese regiments that marched south to engage in full scale battles with American troops. The climax comes in the initially victorious battle for Hue, the old imperial capital on the Perfume River, followed by the merciless US counter-attack which drove the Viet Cong out of the city. Nam Kim disappears into the jungle with a handful of survivors, vowing that he will never give up the fight to free Vietnam.
