

Our Cancer Walk: Gods Miracles and the Power of Prayer

It seems that when everything is good in our lives, something comes along to rock the boat! My husband Jerry and I had no idea what this challenge would bring into our lives, how it would strengthen our faith, bring us closer together, change our goals for the future, or shift our priorities. We felt God near us throughout our journey to assist, encourage, and sustain us, as we encountered and battled a life-threatening disease—CANCER! Our story tells of a gracious God who listened and heard the prayers of His people, of our home church and the magnitude of people praying across the nation, and of the blessings those prayer warriors received through God's granting three miracles. We pray this book will be shared and circulated to encourage and give hope to many cancer patients, survivors, caregivers, families and friends and to always give God the Glory.
