

Herodian Judaism and New Testament Study (Wissenschaftliche Untersuchungen Zum Neuen Testament)

This book presents a selection of William Horburys recent essays. Those collected in Part I seek to trace the profile of Herodian Jewish piety, its Greek and Roman setting, and its reflection in Christianity. Monotheism, mysticism, perceptions of Moses and the Temple are all considered in this way, and a Jewish context for the term gospel and the institution of the Lords Supper is suggested. Part II treats modern New Testament study, with special attention to its links with study of the classical and Jewish traditions, and a survey on British study in its international setting.
