

Westby Hotel, 1863 Hunter encounters a prostitute attacked in a small settlement. He turns his skills to a more mundane investigation that swiftly turns into a supernatural mystery. Mysterious happenings at the hotel and twists bring Hunter close to the woman's attacker, who might be closer than he thinks. What role does the enigmatic stranger who only refers to himself as The Doctor play in this tale? Only he knows as he waits for his schemes to take hold. Part 5 of a twelve part series about the time traveling man who refers to himself as The Doctor and laughs when people ask his name. His only reply is "You'll get it in a hundred and fifty years I think."
