If you are looking for an adventure in the palm of your hand this book is a MUST read. It actually kept me up past my bedtime several nights because I wanted to discover what would happen next. I love stories like that. I was actually sad to have the book end. This story is packed and I really mean packed with thrills, twists and layers. You will get very attached to the characters and feel their ups and downs, to the point I even had sympathy for the villain! I really hope they intend to have more adventures with these characters because I am just not ready to let them go!
