

The Sense of Sight (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Sense of Sight
The aim of this book is to tell the story of the wonderful power of Vision in plain English and in a readable way, and yet keep true to the scientific facts and theories. The writer feels that such a book will interest every intelligent person and hopes that the reading of it will increase the appreciation and interest of every reader in this most knowledge giving sense. The writer has been more interested of late years in Vision than in any other sense, as his mind was forcibly directed to this sense, by the loss through an accident, fourteen years ago, of his left eye. This near call to blindness led to a deep interest and appreciation of the sense of Sight. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
