

Out of Time (The Time Travel Diaries of James Urquhart and Elizabeth Bicester Book 1)

Here are the diaries of the adventures of James Urquhart, minor science lecturer living in 2015 and Elizabeth Bicester, lady of leisure, whom he stumbles upon at a cricket match in 1873. Despite much banter regarding each others manners they manage (through incredible feats of illogical deduction, and help from James Maxwell, H. G. Wells and some strange time devices) to save the world!
