

Descending Lines

When Megan met Carter Anderson at Harvard, their college romance took a mystical turn thanks to The Alchemy of Will by Dr. Allen Fincher. This book gave them the power to do almost anything, but with disastrous results. Years later, their six-year-old daughter, Caitlin, is dying a slow death from bone cancer. Dr. Fincher's book offers them a cure: they can save the life of their first-born by sacrificing the life of their second. But Megan and Carter don't have a second-born yet. Only half-convinced, Megan, confined to their New York apartment, begins nine months of hell, and she and Carter enter a spiral that consumes more lives than they could have ever conceived. Ranging from domestic terror to all-out supernatural horror that flecks the American east coast with mangled bodies, Descending Lines takes a gut-wrenching question: how far would you go to save your child? and turns it into a fast-paced journey to places where even nightmares fear to tread. Descending Lines: The only way out is down.
