

The Art of Memory: Being a Comprehensive and Practical System of Memory Culture (Classic Reprint)

Alexander Smith. Memory is the only Paradise from which we cannot be driven away. Richter. Grant but memory to us and we can lose nothing by death. Whittier. The heart hath its own memory, like the mind. Longfellow. Memory tempers prosperity, mitigates adversity, controls youth, and delights old age. Lactantius. I would rather have a perfect recollection of all I have thought and felt in a day or a week of high activity than read all the books that have been published in a century. Emerson. Hail, Memory, hail! in thy exhaustless mine From age to age unnumbered treasures shine! Thought and her shadowy brood thy call obey. And place and time are subject to thy sway! Rogers.
